

Resolute Mediation & Arbitration, Inc. (RM&A Inc.)
Online Interactive Learning (OIL) Program
Phone: 407-298-3751 • Fax: 407-705-3763

Cultural Diversity – Negotiating with an Afghan Warlord

1CME Diversity or 1CME General Civil

Presenter talks about his personal experience as a combat advisor for the U.S. Army on negotiating with an Afghan warlord who would not permit women to vote during the September 2005 first parliamentary elections in Afghanistan; how cultural differences can influence interactions between people and the mindset behind it.

Topics discussed:

- Short introduction of culture and country
- Personal experience / war time
- Story about the election day and women / warlord issue
- Differences between western / eastern culture, religion role, how war changed the country
- Photos, video